CORAM: A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
4.6.2007

PC:

A common order passed in four complaints bearing Nos.24 to 27 of 2006 dated 27.4.2006 is challenged in these writ petitions. The impugned order rejects the application filed by the petitioner at Ex.U-2 and refuses interim relief as prayed for therein. During the pendency of these petitions calling in question the correctness of interlocutory order the main complaints referred to herein above have been dismissed. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents has placed on record order passed by Member, Industrial Court, Solapur dated 15.2.2007 holding that it has no jurisdiction to try and decide the complaints and hence has dismissed the same. As the main complaints are dismissed the present writ petitions which go to question the correctness of interlocutory order passed, do not survive. Hence all the above writ petitions are dismissed as infructuous. Rule discharged.
